EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] _____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

Incapacity. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as impaired by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency so as to be incapable of realizing and making rational decisions with respect to financial responsibilities.);

Disability. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as physically impaired to the extent of being unable, after reasonable effort, to participate in a credit counseling briefing in person, by telephone, or through the Internet.);

Active military duty in a military combat zone.

5. The United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator has determined that the credit counseling requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 109(h) does not apply in this district.

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

DEFINITIONS

An individual debtor also may be "in business" for the purpose of this form if the debtor engages in a trade, business, or other activity, other than as an employee, to supplement income from the debtor's primary employment.

"Insider." The term "insider" includes but is not limited to: relatives of the debtor; general partners of the debtor and their relatives; corporations of which the debtor is an officer, director, or person in control; officers, directors, and any persons in control of a corporate debtor and their relatives; affiliates of the debtor and insiders of such affiliates; and any managing agent of the debtor. 11 U.S.C. § 101(2), (31).

(Hereinafter referred to as "Attorney," and;)

Scott R. Novak & Emily S. Novak
319 W. Crofoot St.
Sandwich, IL 60548-1213

(Hereinafter referred to as "Client.")

Collectively, Attorney and Client are hereinafter referred to as the "Parties."

WITNESSETH

WHEREAS, Attorney has expertise in the representation of clients in bankruptcy matters and associated proceedings related thereto; and

WHEREAS, Client require the filing of a personal bankruptcy petition; and

WHEREAS, Client desires to retain Attorney to represent him/her with respect to Client's personal bankruptcy matters and to provide such services as an independent contractor, and Attorney is agreeable to such a relationship and/or arrangement, and the Parties desire a written document formalizing and defining their relationship and evidencing the terms of their agreement; and

THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, it is agreed as follows:

1. Appointment: Client hereby appoints Attorney as his/her counsel and hereby retains and employs Attorney upon the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
2. Engagement: Attorney hereby accepts said Retainer Agreement and agrees to represent Client upon the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
3. Authority and Description of Services: During the term of this Agreement Attorney shall provide such professional services and advice in connection with such matters as are specifically requested by Client, or as in the professional judgment of Attorney are reasonably necessary.

a. Scope of Representation: Attorney has been engaged to represent Client or the purpose specific description of work to be done on the specific case or matter. Client represents that he/she do(es) not know of any related legal matters that would require our legal services under this agreement. If such matters arise later, you agree that this agreement does not apply to any related legal matter. Therefore, a separate engagement agreement for provision of services and payment for those services will be required if you wish to engage our law firm to perform legal services pertaining to such matters.

b. Limited Scope of Representation: The scope of our representation does not include advice or services regarding accounting, tax, personal financial matters or business management, and related non-legal matters and advice. If you wish for us to consult with other professionals retained by you regarding this matter, we will communicate with you in writing to confirm the scope of such consultations prior to initiating same. The scope of our representation does not include title searches, surveys, inspections, and other non-legal work relating to real estate. You may wish to engage a title insurance company, abstractor, surveyor, or other licensed professional to provide you with these services.

4. Term of Agreement: This Agreement shall become effective upon execution hereof and shall continue thereafter and remain in effect until the resolution of the case, or until the earlier termination by one of the Parties as provided herein.

5. Advance Payment Retainer:

a. Attorney shall not be obligated to provide the services described herein until an advance payment retainer in the amount of $750.00 is received.

b. The retainer to be paid under this Agreement is called an advance payment retainer. An advance payment retainer becomes the property of the attorney upon receipt. An advance payment retainer is not deposited in the attorney's trust account but is deposited in the attorney's general account. Services provided by Attorney and costs and expenses incurred in the defense of the case will be charged against the retainer as they are performed or incurred, or as otherwise set forth in this Agreement. On a periodic basis Attorney will render bills to Client showing the amount drawn against the retainer for services rendered and costs and expenses incurred. At the conclusion of the case or earlier termination of this Agreement any surplus of the retainer remaining will be refunded to Client. Attorney has chosen an advance payment retainer in this agreement because Client is a defendant or potentially a defendant in numerous pending and potential lawsuits and in the entry of an adverse judgment, the balance of the retainer would otherwise be subject to the remedies for collection available to the plaintiff.

c. Another type of retainer is called a security retainer. A security retainer remains the property of the client and is required to be deposited in the attorney's trust account. On a periodic basis the attorney renders bills to the client showing the amount due for services rendered and costs and expenses incurred. In the absence of an objection from the client the attorney may draw against the security retainer. At the conclusion of the case or earlier termination of the Attorney-Client relationship, the amount of the security retainer remaining in the trust account will be refunded to the client.

d. Client has the option to decline to pay an advanced payment retainer and insist upon the use of a security retainer. In that event, however, Attorney retains the right to decline the representation of Client and in that case this Agreement shall be immediately terminated and neither of the Parties shall have any further rights against or obligations to the other.

e. Attorney shall provide Client with basic services in connection with Client's Chapter 7 bankruptcy. Basic services include, but are not limited to (1) Review and analyze Client's financial circumstances based on information provided by Client; (2) If possible and to the extent possible, based on the information provided by Client, advise Client of the Client's pre-filing options, including but not limited to bankruptcy options. (3) Inform Client what information Client needs to provide Attorney in order to allow Attorney to provide appropriate advice and option information, in the event such information Client provided is insufficient. (4) Advise Client of the appropriate requirements in connection with the filing of a Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 bankruptcy, including the duties of Client connected with such filing. (5) Preparation and filing of the petition, schedules and statements. (6) Assuming that a U.S. Bankruptcy proceeding is filed, Attorney services will include all typical Attorney participation required in such proceeding, including but not limited to, appearances at Court hearings, representation at the meeting of creditors, preparation of legal memoranda, communication with opposing counsel and parties, and submitting information pursuant to requests from the trustee, and other routine services not specifically stated. (7) Take creditor calls both pre-filing and post-filing. (8) If Client's proceeding requires additional, but not customary work, Attorney will inform Client directly, and enter into a separate written contract for such services to fully apprise Client of the fees, payment requirements, and expected services to be provided.

f. Parties agree that the following matters are not included within the scope of this Retainer Agreement. Client agrees that, as to the matters listed below, the Attorney will not take action for Client, without a separate Retainer Agreement and payment of an additional advance payment retainer. (1) Motions to Revoke a Discharge. (2) Removal of a pending action in another court. (3) Obtaining title reports. (4) The determination of real estate or tax liens. (5) Appeals to Bankruptcy Appellate Panel, District Court, or Court of Appeals. (6) Correcting credit reports. (7) Negotiations with Check Systems regarding Client. (8) Any adversary proceeding filed by the local panel interim trustee, U.S. Trustee, or any other party on any basis, including, without limitations, proceedings to determine dischargability of debts, such as those proceedings filed under 11 U.S.C. §§ 523 and 727. (9) Redemption and replacement loan review and motions, and related work pursuant to §722. (10) Client agrees that preparation of amendments to schedules incurring a court filing fee and delays caused by Client's failure to appear at the Meeting of Creditors are also non-basic services.

6. Duties of Client: The duties of Client are as follows:

- a. Client shall supply Attorney on a regular and timely basis with all information and documents relevant to the issues in the case, or requested by Attorney, or responsive to any discovery initiated in the case.
- b. Client shall be responsible for advising Attorney of any information or documents that would affect the accuracy of any prior information given to Attorney.
- c. Client shall make herself/himself available for a deposition or examination in the case, if requested.
- d. Client shall assist in any negotiations for settlement of the case.
- e. Because Attorney shall rely on such information to be supplied by Client, all such information shall be true, accurate, complete, and not misleading, in all respects.
- f. Client shall keep herself/himself advised of the progress of the case and shall act diligently and promptly in reviewing materials submitted to her/him by Attorney and shall inform Attorney of any inaccuracies contained therein or objections thereto within a reasonable time so as to enable Attorney to make any corrections.
- g. Client shall otherwise cooperate fully and timely with Attorney to enable Attorney to perform its duties and obligations under this Agreement.

7. Compensation, Billing, and Payment: Attorney shall be compensated for services hereunder at the rate of $185.00 per hour for pre-bankruptcy services to Client. If a Chapter 7 bankruptcy is filed for Client, Attorney shall be paid a flat fee of $750.00 for services rendered in connection therewith. In addition to the above amounts, Attorney shall be reimbursed for all reasonable and necessary costs (including $335.00 case filing fee or Client will pay filing fee in installments directly to the Clerk of the Court or apply for a waiver of the filing fee) and expenses (including $53.00 credit report fee and $17.00 property value report, if necessary) advanced on behalf of Client. On a quarterly basis, or more frequently in the discretion of Attorney, Attorney shall render bills to Client showing the amount earned against the amount of any remaining retainer with the balance due and payable by Client within thirty (30) days of the date of the bill. Any amount remaining unpaid after thirty (30) days shall bear simple interest at a rate of eighteen (18%) per annum. Attorney has a policy that in the event a payment is not made on the date due, then in that event work may be suspended, without notice, until such a time as arrangements have been made for payment.

8. Termination of Agreement: This Agreement may be terminated by either party prior to the conclusion of the case by written notice to the other. It is specifically agreed that in the event the Client fails or refuses to cooperate with Attorney or fails or refuses to make timely payment of the compensation set forth in this agreement, Attorney shall have the right to suspend any further performance under this agreement until such time as payment is made, or upon notice to Client, terminate this Agreement and withdraw from the case. In such event all compensation shall become immediately due and payable. This agreement will be terminated 30-days after the closure or dismissal of any Bankruptcy Case filed on the Client's behalf.

9. Notices: Notice hereunder may be written or oral and if written, shall be addressed to the party at the address shown above or at such address as the party may designate and may be given in person or by first class mail, postage prepaid, facsimile, or email. Notice in person, by facsimile, or by email shall be effective immediately. Notice by first class mail, postage prepaid, shall be effective three (3) days after mailing.

10. Default: In the event Client fails to pay any amount due to Attorney hereunder, Attorney shall be entitled in any action brought to enforce this Agreement to recover all costs and expenses incurred, including reasonable attorney fees.

11. Return or Records: Upon termination of this Agreement, Attorney, shall make available to Client all items that are in the control of Attorney that are property of or relate to the case, except that the Attorney may retain copies of anything returned to Client. At the conclusion of this matter, Attorney will retain your legal files for a period of 7 years after we close our file. At the expiration of the 7-year period, we will destroy these files unless you notify us in writing that you wish to take possession of them. We reserve the right to charge administrative fees and costs associated with researching, retrieving, copying and delivering such files.

12. Disclaimer by Attorney: Attorney makes no representation to Client or others with respect to the results to be achieved in the case.

13. Ownership of Materials: All right, title, and interest in and to materials to be produced by Attorney in connection with this Agreement and other services to be rendered under said Agreement shall be and remain the sole and exclusive property of Attorney, except in the event Client performs fully and timely its obligations hereunder Client shall be entitled to receive, upon request, one copy of all such materials, and shall be entitled to the non-exclusive rights to use all such materials.

14. Miscellaneous:

a. Time is hereby made of the essence of this Agreement with respect to the performance by the parties of their respective obligations hereunder.

b. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties. It is declared by the Parties that there are no other oral or written agreements or understanding between them affecting this Agreement or relating to the business of Attorney. This Agreement supersedes all previous agreements between Attorney and Client. Client has the right to have this engagement agreement reviewed by another law firm prior to signing it. Likewise, Client has the right to review this engagement agreement outside the presence of this law firm and away from the law firm's office prior to signing it. Client understands that Attorney is not retained until the signed original engagement agreement is returned to the law firm, including the corresponding retainer.

c. This Agreement may be modified or amended provided such modifications or amendments are mutually agreed upon by the Parties and that said modifications or amendments are made only by an instrument in writing signed by the Parties or an oral agreement to the extent that the parties carry it out.

d. The failure of either party, at any time to require such performance by any other party shall not be construed as a waiver of such right to require such performance, and shall in no way affect such party's right to require such performance and shall in no way affect such party's right subsequently to require a full performance hereunder.

e. THIS AGREEMENT IS EXECUTED PURSUANT TO AND SHALL BE INTERPRETED AND GOVERNED FOR ALL PURPOSES BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS. ANY ACTION BROUGHT UNDER THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE BROUGHT IN AND ONLY IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF DEKALB COUNTY, ILLINOIS AND THE PARTIES WAIVE ANY OBJECTION TO JURISDICTION OR VENUE IN SUCH COURT.

f. If any provision of this Agreement shall be held to be contrary to law, void, invalid or unenforceable for any reason, such provision shall be deemed severed from this Agreement and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall continue to be valid and enforceable. If a Court finds that any provision of this Agreement is contrary to law, void, invalid or unenforceable and that by limiting such provision it would become valid and enforceable, then such provision shall be deemed to be written, construed, and enforced as so limited.

g. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, notwithstanding the date or dates upon which this Agreement is executed and delivered by any of the parties, and shall be deemed to be an original and all of which shall constitute one agreement effective as of the reference date first written below. An executed faxed copy of this Agreement shall be construed by all parties hereto as an original version of the Agreement.

h. CO-COUNSEL: Client authorizes Attorney to hire co-counsel or independent attorneys as needed, at Attorney's expense, to work on this matter and divide fees with them on the basis of work and responsibility. Client authorizes Attorney, at its discretion, to have attorneys within the firm, or outside counsel, review Client's file to explore other potential causes of action Client may have against creditors.

i. RECEIPT OF MANDATORY NOTICE AND DISCLOSURE: The Bankruptcy Abuse and Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005 requires the Attorney to provide mandatory notices/disclosures to Client. Signatures on this contract shall be acknowledgment by Client that Client has received, read, and understood the two (2) separate documents entitled "§527(a) Notice," and "Important Information About Bankruptcy Assistance Services From An Attorney or Bankruptcy Petition Preparer."

IN WITNESS THEREOF, THE PARTIES hereto have set forth hands and seal in execution of this Agreement on: 1 October 2014

EMILY S. NOVAK

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy\_forms.html#procedure.
